

Please do not pass any further weakening of protections against monopoly ownership of media markets. The pendulum has already swung too far in favor of large corporations, and media diversity is already too scarce. If anything, please restore protections against ownership of large market shares to restraints that preceded the telecommunications act passed in the early 1990's.